Closing Reception + Walk, September 29 from 6 - 9PM

The first part of the exhibition and related events will continue through Sunday, September 30 in and around Flux Factory with gallery hours on Saturdays & Sundays from 1-6PM, and by appointment. A special Flux Thursday will take place on September 13 as part of S.T.E.P... The second part of the exhibition will take place at Queens Museum, October 28 to December 2. Performances and walks will take place October 28, November 11 and December 2. S.T.E.P... is open to all people of all abilities.

S.T.E.P... seeks to be an overlapping convergence and entanglement of walking, walk-based works and programing, mobilizing throughout New York. S.T.E.P... embraces the many ways and bodies we walk while asking how walking as a creative act can challenge notions and open conversations around visibility, gender, labor, exploration, counter-mapping, colonialism, feminism, motherhood, contesting borders, community building, calling out gentrification, street harassment, (dis)ability, carbon debt, who sets the pace and measurement of the world, the power of dreams, and our entanglements between all of these and one another.

About the Curators:

Christina, Emireth and moira met at Flux Factory's residency in 2016. Christina's practice intervenes into existing systems, approaching culture as something we actively shape together. moira williams' co-creative practice weaves together performance, bio-art, food, sound, sculpture and group walking as a lived experience. Emireth Herrera is a curator who aims to reveal social transformation through democratic processes.
